PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS Signior John Baptiſt Gaſtaldi, Miniſter of the moſt Serene Republick of Genoa, hath preſented a Memorial to his Majeſty at this Board, repreſenting, That ever ſince the Re-eſtabliſhment of Peace by the Treaty of Aix la Chapelle, the ſaid moſt Serene Republick, has taken all the Care poſſible, for ſettling ſuch Regulations, as might ſecure Tranquility in the Iſland of Corſica, which at preſent is the only Place in Europe, where the Troubles are not entirely ceaſed; That there is Reaſon to imagine, the whole Iſland would return to its Duty towards its ancient and lawful Sovereign, if it was not for the Perfidy of ſome of the Chiefs of the Malecontents, who endeavour to foment the Spirit of Rebellion, and do their utmoſt to make it continue; and that one of the beſt Means to elude the Efforts of theſe Chiefs would be, by hindering all Foreign Ships from Landing in Corſica new Succours for the Rebels, and therefore the ſaid Miniſter humbly requeſted, that his Majeſty would be pleaſed to iſſue his Royal Orders, to prohibit his Subjects from giving any Aſſiſtance to the Corſican Rebels, in like Manner as his Majeſty had been formerly pleaſed to do upon Applications of this Kind made by the ſaid Miniſter, in the Fifth and Tenth Years of his Majeſty's Reign—His Majeſty having taken the ſaid Memorial into his Royal Conſideration, and being deſirous of giving all further juſt and reaſonable Satisfaction to his Majeſty's ſaid good Friends and Allies, the Republick of Genoa, and to maintain inviolably the Peace and Friendſhip ſubſiſting between his Majeſty and them, is hereby pleaſed, with the Advice of his Privy Council, ſtrictly to charge and command, all his Majeſty's Subjects, of what Condition ſoever they be, that they forbear to give, or furniſh, Aid, Aſſiſtance, Countenance, or Succour, by any Ways or Means whatſoever, to any of the Inhabitants of the Iſland of Corſica in Rebellion againſt the ſaid moſt Serene Republick, upon Pain not only of his Majeſty's high Diſpleaſure, but of ſuffering ſuch Puniſhment as by Law may be inflicted on ſuch as wilfully violate his Majeſty's Treaties, and infringe the Peace and Friendſhip ſubſiſting between his Majeſty and any Foreign Princes or States—And to the End, that all his Majeſty's Subjects may be informed hereof, it is his Majeſty's Commands, that this Order be printed and publiſhed in the London Gazette.
